MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Support
Deputy Director for Science & Technology

SUBJECT : Proposed Revision of the CIA-Secret Service Agreement Concerning Protection of the President

1. A revision of the current agreement between the Secret Service and the CIA concerning protection of the President and other persons has been proposed by the Secret Service, to reflect recent changes in the law. This agreement, with some modifications suggested by CI Staff and this Office, was circulated to the Deputies by the Chief of CI Staff, for their concurrence, by memorandum of 6 April (attached). The DDI and General Counsel have raised certain questions concerning the proposed agreement. At a subsequent conference among [REDACTED] Mr. Pforzheimer and [REDACTED] it was agreed to request the views of the DDS and DDS&T, after which the proposed revision would be redrafted, taking into account the various CIA views. Your comments or suggestions are requested.
